

What Makes Your Heart Sing? Awakening the Power of Inspiration

Bruce Cryer and Gary Malkin Speaker Intros

Today's speaker performers believe inspiration is at the heart of successful organizations and individuals. Their story started in the 1970s when Gary Malkin and Bruce Cryer were roommates at the famed Oberlin Conservatory where they passionately pursued their love of the performing arts. Bruce had a successful career in musical theater and TV in New York and went on to become a prominent business executive, international leadership consultant and coach, speaker and author. Bruce was one of the founding directors of HeartMath, the globally renowned health and wellness organization, where he served as CEO for 11 years. He is co-author of the Harvard Business Review article "Pull the Plug on Stress". Bruce has been a faculty member of the Stanford Executive Program since 1997, and was named a Top 50 Thought Leader in Personal Excellence.

Gary had a Hollywood career composing and producing music for television and film for over thirty years. His success brought numerous accolades, winning seven Emmys as well as several CLIO and ASCAP awards for his contributions. He is the co-creator of the globally acclaimed resource, Graceful Passages, and the founder of WisdomoftheWorld.com. Gary is not only an award-winning composer, but he is also skilled performer and public speaker dedicated to creating music-driven media and live performances that inspire the heart and catalyze individual and societal healing.

Together, they have created What Makes Your Heart Sing, one of the most unique entertaining and life changing presentations you will ever experience. They are passionate about sharing their stories and helping you find your source of inspiration.

Please welcome Bruce Cryer and Gary Malkin (pronounced Mall-Ken)
